Torrance Hunters They Go to Bag, Return to Brag

Now that the hunting seasons are under way, many of the Torrance sportsmen are trying their luck far and wide. Many choose the high Sierras as their happy hunting ground, while others have their favorite secret grounds and go to "partie unknown" for their sport.

Doug Collins made a hunting trip last week and returned with a fine three point deer, which when dressed, weighed 160 pounds. He said he killed it about 10 miles up in the San Francisco canyon.

Roy Dinsmore of 1027 Acacia and James C. Thompson of 1021 Cravens, left Tuesday for a duck hunting trip somewhere in San Diego county.

Dr. O. E. Fossum and G. L. Morris left Wednesday for a hunting trip to the High Sierras.

L. B. Kelsey keeps licenses for all the sports, for he is fond of hunting and makes frequent trips.

LOCAL TEAMS SCORE HIGH AT RIVERSIDE

Large Silver Trophy Brought Home by Torrance High School

Stock judging team from Torrance high placed third high among all the teams in Southern California at the Riverside fair Saturday and were awarded a large silver trophy.

This high honor reflects great credit on the part of Mr. S. E. Merrill, their instructor, and the students themselves, for many schools competed and the rivalry was high.

Other members of the girl's dairy cattle judging team were Franceline Cummings and Jane Roberts. The team was awarded ribbons for taking second place in judging Holstein cattle and second place in judging Ayrshires.

Plant identification team also won high honors when they placed third in Southern California. This team was composed of Dan Barthecko, Sidney Nickerson and Robert Anderson.

P. E. SHOP TO PLAY BERDOO SAT. NIGHT

By CARLETON BELL

Just this minute we got the word that we have all been looking for. Our P. E. shops team is to play the San Bernardino team another game of indoor ball. This time it is at Compton in the city hall park lighted grounds one block south of Riverside-Redondo road on Wilmington boulevard in Compton. Let's all go and give the boys a hand. It is all in the family and no matter how the game goes we can give the boys a hand.

Vern Dotts, the San Bernardino pitcher, made such an impression the last time that everybody who heard of the game will want to see this one. Just to try to return the compliments shown our team they are to give the San Bernardino team a feed when they arrive in Los Angeles in the new club, then proceed to Compton where the game will be called about 7:00 p. m. After the game the teams will return to the P. E. club building and opportunity will be given the visitors to look the new club building over. So long—till Saturday night at Compton. Sorry it can't be in Torrance, but we hope to have a lighted park by next year.

SHRINERS GO TO SANTA ANA PARK FOR STAG

Lively Time Promised on Hot Sands of Santa Ana—Expect 5000 at Barbecue

Santa Ana will be the mecca for thousands of Shriners next Saturday when Al Malakiah Temple will hold an outdoor initiation ceremony following a motor parade and barbecue.

It is expected that more than 1000 automobiles will join the motor caravan while arrangements have been made by the Orange County Shrine Club to serve a complete barbecue dinner to 5000 Shriners.

The day will be made the occasion of a celebration in honor of illustrious Potentate LeRoy M. Edwards of Al Malakiah Temple, who is an native son of Santa Ana.

The caravan, as arranged, will leave at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning from the end of the street car line at Whittier boulevard in Los Angeles, headed by a motorcycle escort and Potentate Edwards.

At various places along the route to Santa Ana, members of various Shrine clubs from surrounding towns will join the caravan, which will arrive in Santa Ana about noon. A parade will be held in Santa Ana and a brief stop made at the birthplace of the Potentate, after which the caravan will continue on the park.

Following serving of the barbecue, Potentate Edwards will ascend his throne and formally open the initiation ceremony.

This outdoor ceremonial will be the first to be held in several years and a large class of candidates is expected to be on hand.

Recorder George J. Ramsey will be on hand to accept the last moment applications for initiation.

Several moving vans of special scenery constructed for the benefit of the candidates will be hauled to Santa Ana for the day where Ceremonial Director Ernest Hurst and his aides will prepare the proverbial "hot sands" of the desert.

Any Shriner is welcome to attend and may join the caravan at the end of the street car line on Whittier boulevard in Los Angeles, or go with the delegations from any Shrine club.

No transportation to the park is available or will be provided so Shriners are cautioned against going to Santa Ana expecting to find transportation to the park.

The affair is strictly stag and none but Shriners in good standing will be admitted to the park. All entrances to the park will be guarded by Al Malakiah Temple's guard.
